

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
AT KNOXVILLE

JAMES CHRISTOPHER WALKER,

Plaintiff,

v.

3:05-cv-185

OFFICER ROB BOWERS, and BLOUNT COUNTY JUSTICE CENTER,

Defendants.

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

The court is in receipt of a pro se prisoner's civil rights complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and an application to proceed in forma pauperis. It appears from the application that the plaintiff lacks sufficient financial resources to pay the $250.00 filing fee. Accordingly, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(4), the Clerk is DIRECTED to file this action without the prepayment of costs or fees or security therefor as of the date the complaint was received. For the following reasons, the complaint is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

Before a prisoner may bring a civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, he must first allege and show that he has exhausted all available administrative remedies. 42 U.S.C. § 1997e; Porter v. Nussle, 122 S. Ct. 983 (2002). See also Curry v. Scott, 249 F.3d 493, 501 n.2 (6th Cir. 2001) ("We note, however, that, while it is true we have concluded § 1997e does not impose a jurisdictional bar to federal jurisdiction, we have also concluded that the obligation to exhaust administrative remedies before resort to federal court is a mandatory one.") (citations omitted).

In order to demonstrate that he has exhausted his administrative remedies, "a prisoner must plead his claims with specificity and show that they have been exhausted by attaching a copy of the applicable administrative dispositions to the complaint or, in the absence of written documentation, describe with specificity the administrative proceeding and its outcome." Knuckles El v. Toombs, 215 F.3d 640, 642 (6th Cir.), cert. denied, 531 U.S. 1040 (2000). A prisoner cannot simply state in his complaint that his claims have been exhausted. Id. "In the absence of particularized averments concerning exhaustion showing the nature of the administrative proceeding and its outcome, the action must be dismissed under § 1997e." Id.

Plaintiff is an inmate in the Hardeman County Correctional Complex. His complaint concerns his confinement in the Blount County Justice Center. The defendants are the justice center itself and Officer Rob Bowers. Plaintiff alleges numerous instances of harassment and assault by Officer Bowers, including an incident where Officer Bowers allegedly manipulated four trustees into assaulting plaintiff. According to plaintiff, there was an official internal investigation into this incident, resulting in the trustees and Officer Bowers being fired from their positions.

Plaintiff also claims he filed a grievance against Officer Bowers, as well as the formal complaint. Plaintiff did not, however, attach a copy of the grievance, the formal complaint, or the written results of the internal investigation, nor did he describe with specificity either the contents of the documents or the proceedings. Under the circumstances, the court finds that plaintiff's complaint should be DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1997e for failure to exhaust administrative remedies. The court CERTIFIES that any appeal from this action would not be taken in good faith and would be totally frivolous. See Rule 24 of the FEDERAL RULES OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE.

Because plaintiff is an inmate in the Hardeman County Correctional Complex, he is herewith ASSESSED the civil filing fee of $250.00. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1)(A) and (B), the custodian of the plaintiff's inmate trust account at the institution where he now resides is directed to submit to the Clerk, U.S. District Court, 800 Market Street, Suite 130, Knoxville, Tennessee 37902, as an initial partial payment, whichever is greater of:

(a) twenty percent (20%) of the average monthly deposits to the plaintiff's inmate trust account; or

(b) twenty percent (20%) of the average monthly balance in the plaintiff's inmate trust account for the six-month period preceding the filing of the complaint.

Thereafter, the custodian shall submit twenty percent (20%) of the plaintiff's preceding monthly income (or income credited to the plaintiff's trust account for the preceding month), but only when such monthly income exceeds ten dollars ($10.00), until the full filing fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) as authorized under 28 U.S.C. § 1914(a) has been paid to the Clerk. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(2).

The Clerk is DIRECTED to send a copy of this Memorandum and Order to the Warden of the Hardeman County Correctional Complex, the Commissioner of the Tennessee Department of Correction, and the Attorney General for the State of Tennessee, to ensure that the custodian of the plaintiff's inmate trust account complies with that portion of the Prison Litigation Reform Act relating to payment of the filing fee. The Clerk is further DIRECTED to forward a copy of this Memorandum and Order to the court's financial deputy.
